

ZAK MORGAN'S "THE CRIBLING"

Your Name: _____

The moral of the story is it's hard to have a brother
Or a sister who is hogging
the attention of your mother
And your father. It's annoying, and sometimes it's hard to do,
But you love your little siblings,
and your parents love you.

What are three things you can do to show your mom, dad or siblings (brothers and sisters) that you love them and you are thankful for them? Draw a picture of that person in the box above.
